PROJECTS

02/02/2025 – 09/04/2025
Email Management System

Email Management System (MERN Stack Project)
Developed a full-stack email management system using MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, and Node.js. The application includes secure JWT-based authentication for user login/signup, dynamic email CRUD operations, and image upload functionality via Multer. Designed for efficient user interaction and seamless backend integration, with a structured folder architecture and API-first approach.

VOLUNTEERING

07/02/2025 – 11/03/2025 Rawalpindi
Behbud Association

Behbud Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to social welfare, education, and community development. As a volunteer, you'll have the opportunity to make a meaningful impact by supporting educational programs for underprivileged children, participating in community outreach initiatives, assisting with event planning and execution, contributing to fundraising efforts, and helping with administrative tasks. By volunteering with Behbud Association, you'll play a vital role in supporting their mission and positively impacting the community.
